

~~SECRET~~
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

55-3040

Security 3

28 November 1955

25X1A9A

MEMORANDUM FOR: [REDACTED]

SUBJECT : Request for Approval to make a Public Address

1. Your request for permission to address the [REDACTED]

Church at 1830 hours on 28 November 1955 has been approved by the Deputy Director (Support) subject to the following conditions:

- a. That you adhere to the outline prepared by you, a carbon copy of which is attached,
- b. That you not conduct a question and answer period following delivery of the address as outlined,
- c. That you not embellish the address by adding personal philosophy nor possible courses of action.
- d. That you comply with such other limitations as were imposed by the Office of Security in this case.

2. In accordance with our conversation of 23 November, I advised the Deputy Director (Support) that an official of the Office of Security had reviewed the substance of your proposed address and on behalf of the Office of Security had found it not objectionable.

[REDACTED]
Special Assistant to the Deputy Director (Support)

25X1A9A

SA-DD/S:JER:d1c (28 Nov 55)

cc: [REDACTED] w/cc of outline

1-chrono

1-subject

1-JER

O&1-adse w/cc of outline

25X1A9A

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

4

88

12-21-78

25X1

Communist Ideology

I. Historical Background

1. Rise of the Bourgeois Society
2. Protests Against the Abuses of the Bourgeois Society
3. Reform or Revolution?

II. Marx and Marxism

1. Marxism Becomes Official Doctrine of Socialist Movement
2. Life and Thought of Karl Marx
  - a. Philosophy of Nature: Dialectical Materialism
  - b. Philosophy of History: Historical Materialism
  - c. Economic Theory
  - d. Political Theory
3. Emotional and Messianic Content in Marxism

III. From Marx to Lenin

1. The Founding of Marxist Parties Throughout Europe
2. The Russian Social Democratic Labor Party
  - a. The Bolshevik-Menshevik Split
3. The Bolshevik Revolution

IV. Conclusion: Communism Seen as the Wedding of the Utopian Ideology of Marx with the Practical, Cynical, Power Politics of Lenin

25X1A

23 November 1955

CONFIDENTIAL